

Hot Time

Bucky knows how to get a crowd fired up, but he has a tougher time with an oven. Must be those big paws.

With the holidays just around the corner, Bucky wants to brush up on his culinary skills. So he's studying his copy of Carson Gulley's Seasoning Secrets in hopes of learning how to make the UW chef's famous Fudge-Bottom Pie. In fact, Bucky's attempts at baking the pastry are strewn around his kitchen, which is piled high with saucepans and not-quite-perfect piecrusts.

But badgers are nothing if not tenacious, and Bucky wants to impress his party guests with the sweet treat, so he suits up for yet another attempt. He may not be a world-class cook, but Bucky certainly looks the part in his crisp white apron and starched chef's cap! Now, if he could only find that family recipe for oven-roasted Golden Gopher ...
