

What's a BADGER to Wear?

Bucky's a busy badger,
and his social calendar
fills up fast.

But when he heard about a black-tie New Year's Eve party on Capitol Square, he knew this was an event to pencil in. After all, Bucky always likes to be in the center of the action. But what's a Badger to wear? Not just any crummy cummerbund would do, and most tuxedos don't come in mustelid sizes. Then Bucky remembered: on his last trip to Pasadena, he met a famous fashion designer who offered to tailor a tux for him after admiring his red-and-white sweater. So Bucky picked up his Paw Pilot, found the designer's e-mail address, and sent a plea for help. A few weeks later, this amazing outfit arrived at Bucky's den in Camp Randall Stadium. He's sure to stand out on the dance floor in this bow tie, silky black jacket, and red patent-leather shoes!
