

Happy Camper

Ah, summer and a chance to escape from town for a while!

With the end of the semester, Bucky is off to camp, where, as counselor, he teaches his little charges (known as Buckettes) how to be the best Badgers they can be. They learn how to trap gophers and make cheese. They practice chants and sing camp songs (most of which sound like "Varsity"). And late at night, he tells them scary stories about the creepy figures who haunt the steam tunnels and the library study carrels. Spooky.
