

The Fix Is In

Sh. Don't tell anyone, but we've got a pretty good feeling about how the Badgers will do this year, and it's got nothing to do with our athletes' level of talent. Take a close look at the guy in stripes, and you'll see a friendly face — or at least one who's friendly to the UW and somewhat more malign to our opponents. Yes, Bucky's taken on the look of a zebra, and we figure that ought to be good news. You'll see him blowing the whistle like mad for the Badgers, whether they're playing football, basketball, hockey, table tennis, or soap-box derby.

Cut out these outfits along the dotted lines to go with your Flat Bucky paper doll. Haven't got yours? Watch your mail for a membership kit.

Then take Bucky with you on the road. E-mail your Where's Bucky photos to Insider@uwalumni.com.

PHOTO ILLUSTRATION: BACKGROUND IMAGE UNIVERSITY COMMUNICATIONS, JEFF MILLER