Tooting Our Horn

Strike up the band and celebrate: the Wisconsin Alumni Association is 150 years old. What does this mean? Well, for one thing, WAA probably won’t be carded when trying to buy beer anymore. For another, it means that this vast Badger community you’re a part of is tooting its own horn — and asking Bucky to toot his horn, too. The stylized Marching Band uniform Bucky dons in anniversary promotions (and on this page) is based on a figure in a mural in the Red Gym’s On Wisconsin Room. Though the mural has an antique look, it’s not all that old — it was painted in 2003 by Avis and Tony Erickson.

Cut out this outfit along the dotted lines to go with your Flat Bucky paper doll.

Haven’t got yours? Watch your mail for a membership kit. Then take Bucky with you on the road. E-mail your Where’s Bucky photos to Insider@uwalumni.com.